Domestic News Items.

Weener Purrus and any Rose Myrusca.—A gentium of this city, says the Richmond Dispatch, purshered a quantity of pumpkin seed at the North, and finding after he had put them in the ground, that they were rather slow in coming up, had the curiosity to examine the material they were made of, and found them all of wood. A ledy observing in grating nutmens over her dessert, that the flavor was not much improved, discovered that the flavor was not much improved, discovered that the flavor was made of rosin. This will do very well. Brown paper heels and soles of shoes, hollow brass nail heads, wooden pumpkin seed and rosin nutmegs. All of a piece with the hollow philanthropy of abolition.

One of Brown's Mar Mex.—A book podler, named All britton, was arrested in Marion, Ala., on the 3d inst. The impricane says:—He was arrested about eight o'dlock this morning and carried to Cahaba, where, it is reported, they have the documents showing him to be one of the original men to be stationed on the line of the published Brown Mag. We learn from Marshal Curits that there is sufficient proof found in the prisoner's trunk to convict him begond the shadow of a doubt, of being an emissary. If no, the Lord have mercy on his soul (?), for we know the people of Cahaba well enough to feel condident that they will give him full justice, terrible as it may be.

LOUBLANA SOGAR Cher.—The Académs, of the 3d instant, mays:—Most of the sugar planters have finished rolling, and it is now safe to estimate the crop. We say 250,000 hogs-heads.

The Pointe Coupée (LA.) Democrat, of the same date, has

The Pointe Coupée (I.a.) Democrat, of the same date, has the following:—Sugar grinding is drawing to a close. But two wow make granulated sugar, so much damage has seen done by the late frost. The crop will be still poorer han any one even anticipated. We must except from the blove those who have had the foresight to windrow their ame prior to the heavy frost. Those planters will have aved nearly their entire crops by that process.

AN ARSONDING HUSBAND RETURNED.—A man named Hiram Platt (says the Detroit Free Fress) desorted his wife at Huron, in this county, several weeks ago, and eloped with the wife of a Mr. Hiram Miller, residing in Brownstown. When he went away he managed to get possession of all the money his wife had, and left her mearly destitute. His paramour left a family of small children. A few days since Platt returned, having run out of funda and got sick of his little escapade. He left the woman in Ohio.

AN UNINTERMIGRAL PARRICHE.—The Nashville Gasette Bays, that on Wednesday night of last week, a man named Langster, living on Sam's Creek, Tenn., returned with his wife from a visit to a neighbor, and wishing to test the courage of his son (a boy 13 years old), the father cautiously crept to the door and knecked. The lad laquired soveral times who was there, and receiving no answer, took down his father's gun and went out by the back way, and again called out to know who was there. Beceiving no answer, he fired the weapon, and inflicted much wounds that it is hardly possible the poor father will survive them.

SELLING THE IMPENDING CRISES.—Mr. Charles T. Dixon, of hurch Creek, Md., was arrested in Cambridge last week, harged with circulating incondiary matter in selling copies (the famous "Compendium of the Impending Crisis in the South" by H. R. Helper, of North Carolina. Mr. Ison was held to ball in $500 for Court.

or Tanon.—At the last meeting of the Southern Association of Richmond it was stated that $30,000 seen subscribed to the capital of the Richmond and soot packet line, and that Mr. E. W. De Voss had upted a new ship, not yet named, making the entire ription equivalent to $120,000. Only $30,000 was ired.

'trus Firm in Rochesteren—Lose $30,000.—There structive fire in Rochester on Saturday night and norning, which laid in rulus the northeast cordine and Clinton streets, totally destroying the Saptist church edifice and a three story brick two stores next east, owned by Edwin W. Col-

Sorty-tve years of age, was accidentally drowned in st-tempting to cross the wire bridge in Ansonia, Conn., on Seturday night last. He leaves a wife and four children.

Personal Intelligence.

Fred. Douglas' arrival in England was anxiously looked for by all the abolitionists. His friend George Thompson had returned from India and would receive him, with many of the titled and commoner anti-slavery folk, so that there was a fine time in prospect for the colored folk. The Standard of London, the High Church organ, was in great tribulation respecting John Brown's approaching fate; but hoped that the cause would be sustained by Dr. Cheever, Mrs. Croft, Fred. Douglas, and fervent prayer.

The Norfolk Argus states that Gov. Wise, Esq., the splendid Moseley farm, beautifully located on the eastern branch of the Edzabeth, about eight miles from that city, contemplates removing and residing there in the early part of next year.

The Elmira (N. Y.) Gazette says that Hazlett, one of the Harper's Ferry insurgents, was formerly connected with a gang of borse thieves in that vicinity, and escaped punishment by turning State's evidence. This is a specimen of the martyrs who are to make "the gallows glorious as the cross."

Hon. W. K. Sebastian, of Arkansas; Commodore Paulding, United States Navy: Judge Connilson and Indy, of New Jersey; Judge Potter, of New York; Judge Rosengrants, of Glen's Falls, New York, are in Washington.

Mayor Swann has arrived at his home in Baltimore From his late visit in Virginia, and, as the Baltimore Patriot is glad to hear, much "impaired" in health.

Mr. Kellogs, of Illinois, who has become famous on account of his controversy with Greeley, is a stout, well built gentleman of about tifty years of age.

Captain Alexander Murray, U. S. N., John A. Ahl, late member of Congress from Fennsylvania, and Hoc. J. M. Love, of lowa, are in Washington.

A bill is before the Legislature of Georgia to pardon John Fundy, of Gwinnet county, who is under sentence of death for the crimo of murder. The father of this man Fundy is at the capital. He is an old man, an Italian, we was informed, who enlisted under Napoleon Bonaparte as a champion of Italian liberty. He followed "the man of destiny" through his Italian campaign, and was present in several of his hardest fought battles. He enlisted and was with him in his invasion of Spain, and was only prevented from going into his Russian campaign by a severe wound. He was forced to leave Italy on account of his political Opinions.

4. That only owing to the automorphism of Mr. Lealer reached likebook, the artist and correspondent of Mr. Lealer reached likebook on Friday night.

The latter fact is best proved by the following report of the the correspondent for the Baltimore Clipper, who says, in the saue of that paper for yesterday—

" "Having availed myself of the kind stimutime of Mr. Having availed myself of the kind stimutime of Mr. C. Hitchcock, of the NEW YORK ILLUSTRATED MEWR, to reach home last evening, that enterprising gentlessas having made arrangements to run an express bosomotive from Charlestown to Harper's Ferry, and thence to Baltimore, last evening. To Mr. Hitchcock a number of gentlemest connected with the Press are deeply indebted, not only for their promote conveyance to Baltimore, but also for his many kind and delicate attantions in Charlestown, where he had rooses at the Carter House, and where, it may be truly said, he isent open house."

Transcript.

This volume will be the favorite for Christmas and New Year's presents.—Buffalo Courier. In every respect the volume is made as perfect as it can be made through the purest of paper, the most admirable print, and the most elegant pictures, while it conveys a library of information concerning a theme that never tires, and to which all Americans readily turn, whether it be handled by the humblest of writers, or animate the golden elequence of an Everett.—Boston Traveller. The work is feelingly and discriminatingly written, and contains one of the most interesting accounts of the private lists and history of Washington ever written.—Hartford Courses.

In point of taste, beauty, fullness, and variety of Illustration, this solid volume must satisfy the demands of the most satisficus lover of handsome books.—Boston Recorder.
